Happy Thanksgiving!

It's late fall - time to celebrate the harvest and give thanks. Whether you're cooking up a giant bird for your cousins twice-removed, traveling across the country, or just having a simple dinner at home, Thanksgiving is a wonderful time to stop and appreciate the people around you. It's also the ideal time to notice the small things - little details that say 'I care' and 'thank you'. Decorations made from Lily@ Sugar'n Cream® are a great way of putting some extra thought and effort into the holidays. If you're looking for design ideas to keep everyone smiling through the season, read on for inspiration.

Exclusive Thanksgiving Patterns

Here at Lily Sugar'n Cream Headquarters, we love Thanksgiving - it's an opportunity to see family, give thanks, and a chance to have some fun too! These four whimsical patterns to crochet means Thanksgiving is just around the corner. Colorful pumpkin decorations add a fall harvest feel anywhere around the house and will bring a smile to your face. That's not all - just watch as your family members race to be the first one to help with the dishes when you crochet these adorable dishcloths.
