Life is full of a seemingly infinite number of things begging to be carried around, which is exactly why you can never own too many bags. Whether it be produce, clothing, or your latest knit or crochet project, you deserve a bag you will be proud to show off! Add a personal flair to your daily life by making one of these four divine market bags, each one using shades of the durable, washable, and easy-to-use Lily Sugar'n Cream.

Go Green Market Bag (knit)

A bag perfect for the farmer's market maven, the Go Green Market Bag \(knit\) includes both front and back pockets to help you keep track of smaller items, while still having plenty of space in the main compartment for everything else you need. Knit in three panels and featuring an easy-to-repeat pattern, this bag is a great project to take on the road.

Since the straps reach all the way around the bottom, you'll have an extra-sturdy bag to carry your new purchases when it's knit in Lily Sugar'n Cream.

Jeans Tote (crochet)

Keep up with fashion by crocheting the stylish and spacious Jeans Tote! The bag portion is made in one piece with no seams, meaning you have less finishing work and will be using your new bag sooner! The wide shoulder straps keep the bag firmly on your shoulder, and since the two thicknesses of single crochet keep your bag from stretching out of shape. In fact, the entire bag is single crochet—meaning your Lily Sugar'n Cream tote will be tough, consistent, and perfect for your bustling lifestyle.

Market Tote Bag (crochet)

Keep things colorful as you go about your day with this traditional Market Tote Bag (crochet). Long straps and a wide bottom make this bag great for carrying anything you need for your day. The pattern features bright, cheerful stripes in two color combinations, but by using your own color scheme in Lily Sugar'n Cream you can crochet a Market Tote Bag to match any personality! We have 111 shades, which means there are a mere 128,164,707 different shade combinations in which you can crochet this bag! Use bright, cool colors to remember the fun of the summer, or warm reds and golds to fit in with the coming fall months. Crochet bags in the colors of favorite sports teams or universities as handy gifts that are certain to be used, appreciated, and enjoyed!

Melon Pocket Bag (knit)

This handy Melon Pocket Bag (knit) has a zipper that lets the bag fold up into itself when not in use, with a hand-strap for carrying ease. When you need the help of a market bag, just unzip and unfold to reveal a fruity tote! Use basic yarn overs to create a simple yet elegant lace pattern that mimics the seeds of a watermelon!

The durability, easy care, and wide shade range of Lily Sugar'n Cream makes the yarn ideal for market bags of all shapes and sizes. For larger projects, convenient 14 oz. cones of Lily Sugar'n Cream are now available online in select shades!
