Floored by Flowers

If you're looking for a lasting way to enjoy the beauty of spring, try making your own crochet bouquet of flowers. Looking at it will keep you in tune with the beauty of nature even during spring showers.

Each bouquet captures that springtime feel and fills the room with warmth. These flowers are great as decoration in a drab room or modified as an accessory to your favorite spring ensemble. From Roses to Daisies, to Pansies, to Daffodils, there's surely something to keep you inspired by springtime beauty.
